

Course Descriptions

Political Science

POLI 1113 American National Government

American National Government is an introduction to the federal system of government found in the United States. The course of study includes the roles of Congress, the Presidency, Judiciary, Bureaucracy, interest groups and political parties.

POLI2113 Comparative Politics

This course provides an introductory survey of the various political states of the world, focusing on: history, geography, political culture, political institutions and processes. (Meets requirement for International Dimension.)

POLI 2133 State and Local Government

This course is the study of the nature and make up of the state, county, municipal and other grass roots level governments; It examines their place in a federal system and how they operate to include the officials that exist in such systems.

POLI 2450 Supervised Study in Political Science

Independent study.